

CONSIDER GETTING A SECOND OPINION IF YOU:

- Have questions about your current course of treatment or diagnosis.
- Need confirmation of your diagnosis and extent of disease.
- Desire a fuller understanding of test results and their significance.
- Seeking suggestions for additional treatment alternatives or additional diagnostic procedures.
- Want information about relevant clinical trials.
- Are delaying treatment.

WHAT WE WILL DO FOR YOU:

- Collect your medical records, imaging and pathology from your medical providers.
- Have four to seven volunteer doctors review your records, images and pathology.
- Schedule a panel review for you and your family to attend at one of our sites.
- Give you an overview of your diagnosis and treatment plan and answer all of your questions.
- Record the session and provide a written summary of your review for you and your treating physicians.

Web: www.thesecondopinion.org

Complete program forms:

The forms can be downloaded from our website, emailed or mailed. Contact us for more information.

Eligibility Requirements:

- You need a cancer diagnosis from your doctor, and have been offered a treatment plan.
- You wish to clarify your diagnosis and/or discuss treatment options.
- You must be able to come to our office in San Francisco and spend 2 to 3 hours with us for your panel appointment.
- Copies of your written medical records (in English), imaging, and your biopsies must be available to us 10 days before your panel date.
- You are not in the process of getting a "second" opinion from a medical provider.

Our intake staff are English speaking only. Please seek help from a social worker, friend or relative to help communicate on your behalf, if needed. Once given an appointment, we will make every effort to provide you with a complimentary medical interpreter.
